Bringing Decisions into Focus

What is ECRA Data Manager?

ECRA Data Manager is a new service from ECRA Group which offers school districts a full-service achievement monitoring system that is specifically tailored to your needs. ECRA Data Manager is a customized database solution managed entirely by ECRA that contains assessment data, and other data related to student achievement. In addition, the ECRA Data Manager solution is bundled with research and reporting services to allow school districts access to ECRA's research and content experts. The unique approach of bundling data management services with research and reporting enables school districts to use ECRA Group as a research arm of their own organizations by partnering with experienced researchers, educators and administrators. The objective of ECRA data manager is to empower educational leaders with the resources necessary to acquire critical and timely data related to student achievement to help bring decisions into focus and plan a course for the future.

Why should I be interested in ECRA Data Manager?

Today's educational institutions are transitioning to heightened levels of excellence. In addition, today's leaders operate in an environment of increasing legislative mandates and an environment where stakeholders demand accountability and scrutinize decision making. The decisions made by educational leaders have far-reaching implications. The tools formerly used by educational leaders to guide their organizations no longer meet future challenges. New challenges require new solutions. ECRA Data Manager helps leaders overcome these challenges by providing instant access to needed resources. Timely access to accurate up-to-date information related to student achievement is essential for effective leadership and informed decision making. ECRA relieves the burden of implementing and managing costly data systems so school systems can focus on improving the effectiveness of their organization.
